DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-4, 6 and 9 are pending. Claim 3 has been amended in this communication filed 09/19/06 entered as Response After Non-Final Action, New or Additional Drawings, and Miscellaneous Incoming Letter. The IDS filed 09/14/06 has been reviewed and entered.

2. Applicants' arguments are considered moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection as set forth here below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- 3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
 The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
- 4. Claims 1, 3, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted steps are: Claim 1 after limitation one, retrieving based on a predetermined syntax of the macro language one or more keywords in the macro language expression; ...; executing from the retrieved registry of keywords and associated executable codes the associated executable codes associated with the one or more keywords in the macro language statement; ... and (another step is needed here containing "retrieved executable cod" and "without recompiling the macro language"). There needs to be a connection in the claim limitations after the "retrieved executable code" is executed to run.

Claims 3 and 9 have a similar problem with a disconnect in the claim limitations and steps omitted.

Art Unit: 3694

Claims 2, 4, and 6 are also rejected because of their dependency on a rejected base claim.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "in the macro language statement" in the second claim limitation. This claim limitation should recite "in a macro language statement" since this is the first reference to "macro language statement". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Conclusion

5. Suggestions for some subject matter that might be incorporated into the independent claims are as follows: providing an extensible macro language that allows users to write new macro commands that include procedures which are tailored to the specific needs of users without any need to modify any of the source code of the macro language processor; enabling the extensible macro language processor to process the new extensible macro language commands unknown to the macro language and associating the new macro language commands with procedure calls which are stored in a registry allowing for dynamic extension of the new macro language; dynamically registering the new macro commands in a registry allowing for extensibility of the new macro commands.

When adding claim limitations to the independent claims, Applicants' are respectfully requested to make sure the claim limitations do not have a gap between the claim limitations in the body of the claims.

Art Unit: 3694

After the amendments have been made to the claims, the application will have an extensive search performed and if there are no remaining issues with the claims and no new prior art is found, the application will be passed to issue.
